“The idea to design a classical-eclectic ambience raises from the choice to give to the customer an Italian style that is at one and the same time essential, refined and emotional.”

BRUNO POLLIERO

Bruno Polliero, Interior Designer and Architect, works in Italy and abroad for private and public customers. He contributed to many hotels and luxury resorts renovations, plus restorations of historical buildings, palaces and prestigious mansions that, in the past, accommodated eminent and illustrious personalities (such as Giovanni Borromeo, Napoleon Bonaparte and Richard Wagner). His work has been vividly portrayed in the most prominent specialized magazines. In 1982 he started a partnership with the famous French stylist Pierre Balmain, and this permitted him to conceive a collection of home accessories and furniture that not only increased the Italian design's numbers, but linked fashion and interior design. From 1996, when he was engaged by an important Croatian hotel chain, in cooperation with the Croatian State, he follows the restoration of historical hotels belonging to the Austro-Hungarian times, with the aim to carry over their ancient magnificence. To deeply satisfy his customers' needs, the Interior Architect extended, in the last years, its own range planning to fitness centers and spas.

PRESTIGIOUS COLLABORATIONS

www.illy.com

Inside the room there is a corner devoted entirely to the service of Illy coffee, comprised of a coffee machine, accessories for the service and a wide range of capsules.

An excellent coffee deserves to be best served in the best way possible...

The rite is perfect and the pleasures of taste, vision, scent and touch are integrated in a symphony.

In addition to coffee, guests may enjoy the renowned Domori chocolate, appetising Agrimontana jams (but also chestnut and candied fruit ones), the prestigious Brunello di Montalcino Mastrojanni and the refined French Damman Freses tea. A constellation of niche companies join the Illy family in the name of excellence and taste.
